Dear Applicants:

A previous staff letter of August 19, 2010, described certain deficiencies in the captioned license application. The letter directed you to file an amendment addressing the noted deficiencies within 60 days. As of today, we have received no response to the deficiency letter.

Pursuant to Section 73.1015 of the Commission's rules,¹ the Commission or its representatives may request any information deemed necessary to process an application.² Failure to respond to a Commission inquiry or deficiency letter constitutes a violation of Section 73.1015 of the Commission's rules which may subject the recipient to a forfeiture penalty or other sanction.³

We will afford you an additional 30 days in which to respond to the staff's deficiency letter. Failure to respond completely to all noted deficiencies within that time period may result in the issuance of a Notice of Apparent Liability for violation of Section 73.1015 of the Rules.

Sincerely,

Ann Gallagher
